> POPULIST PARTY OF KANSAS LEGALLY DEAD?

> Under the Election Law of the State Watson Electoral Ticket May Not Be Allowed on Official Ballots.

> REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Topeka, Kas., Aug. 5.-Is the Populist party of Kansas legally dead? That is a question with which leaders of that party are confronted. Two days ago the Populist State Convention fused with the Democrats in a State ticket, but nominated a Watson electoral ticket.

The election law provides that a politi-cal party earnot set its tickets on the bal-lot unless it polled 5 per cent of the total vote the preceding election. At the last State election, in 1922, the Populists in-dersed the Democratic State ticket. As a party, therefore, it is believed that it is legally out of the business in Kansas.

"Here, in Colorado, is the crest of the continent, its supremest uplift, where from a vast central plateau, itself 6,000 feet above the sea, rise hundreds of granite peaks into the regions of perpetual snow. Here the waters of a continent are divided and great rivers flowing to either ocean have their source. Here are canons, gorgeous, awefuspiring and superdous, which testify to the hoary age of the mountains they have cut audider. Here are the continent's treasure vaults, where veins of gold and silver seam the granite mountains. Here are medicinal springs for healing and refreshment; and here, under skies of deepest blue, lies a zon-bathed land with a climate whose delights and perfections the lowland dweller may not know."—Geo, Kex Buckman.
